Flash Tip

Tachibana's Kaisyou Hachiman Shrine hosts a big festival in the fall. Large danjiri sedans, or floats, are rammed against each other in the Fighting Danjiri Event.

LED ANAN
Flash Tip

In the spring and autumn festivals, as a show of strength, men and women carry 50kg and 30kg bags of rice, respectively, several times around a sumo ring in what is called a "Rice-cake-offering Race".

In the deep blue stillness of Tachibana Bay float many islands, large and small. The bay's beauty is likened to that of Matsu-shima, one of the three Great Landscapes of Japan. I feel nostalgic when I hear the hum of fishing boats and the call of gulls.
